Drumm Commission Company, a corporation, Plaintiff.
vs. No. 490.

William E. Washington, Defendant.

To the above named defendant, William E. Washington:

You are hereby notified that the above named Drumm Commission Company, a corporation, as plaintiff, has commenced suit against you as defendant for the foreclosure of certain mortgages, executed by you to secure the payment of certain promissory notes described therein and also in the complaint filed in said suit, copies of which mortgages and notes are thereto attached and which mortgages and notes were by you made and delivered to plaintiff. Said notes bearing eight per cent interest and said mortgages being found upon the mortgage records of Chaves and Eddy counties, Territory of New Mexico, as the same appears in the office of the Probate Clerk and Ex-Officio Recorder of said counties. The property upon which said mortgages rest as security and which is described therein is certain cattle and horses branded in various brands on defendant's ranch and range in Eddy and Chaves counties, New Mexico, and being all the property described in said mortgages owned and controlled by said defendant on said ranch and range in said counties, being about 14,716 of various and different classes and ages, steers, bulls, calves, cows and the increase of the cows and about 200 head of saddle horses all of which property is mentioned and described by various marks and brands in the aforesaid mortgages. The total amount of said indebtedness as shown by said notes is $158,132.45 with interest thereon at eight per cent from maturity, and all of said notes and indebtedness being long since due and now remaining unpaid; and you are further notified, that in the complaint filed herein for the foreclosure of mortgages on said property, plaintiff has also asked for a deficiency judgment, applied to the court for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of all said property, and has prayed for a restraining order, restraining you, the defendant, his servants, employees, agents, attorneys and all other persons from handling, branding, running, removing, driving, gathering, selling, or in any way or manner interfering with said cattle, horses, feed troughs, watering privileges, and from hindering, delaying or interfering with the receiver who may be appointed by this court of the free and full discharge of his duties as such receiver, and for such other and further relief as the court may deem proper. You are further notified that unless you enter your appearance in said case in said district court, Chaves county, Territory of New Mexico, on or before the 21st day of December, 1903, a decree will be rendered against you in said case for non-appearance and by default. You are further notified that the names of the plaintiff's attorneys in the above entitled case are Botsford, Deatherage & Young, Kansas City, Missouri, and Richardson, Reid & Hervey, Roswell, New Mexico.
